

East Springfield Neighborhood Council
Board Meeting
July 3, 2018

Old Business

- 1333 Page Blvd – update-holes have been filled in, bushes trimmed and fence painted. Property owner has been cooperative
- Last movie – Wonder – was a great success!
- Noise on Brookdale Street – has not been a problem for over a month! Business was very responsive
- Abutter on Fresno Street not happy with Pride’s plans and will contact Kathy to get ahold of Bolduc
- 271 Page Blvd – special permit was passed with a list of special conditions
- Dunkin Donuts at the Plaza – to the left of the registry. Kathy Brown and Cathy Mossi met with Paul Caron to discuss details. The plan is still active for a dollar store, as well as the DD and 2 other storefronts

New Business

- National Night Out – still need volunteers, food set, yard games set, movie set (city will set up and take down), might have a photo booth run by Westbank; need face painters.
- Henna Workshop- July 14th- fully booked
- Library wants to have another collaboration – book signing for Jim Flemming – Death of an Altar Boy (Danny Croteau) August 16th
- Kathy and Marie went to a meeting for the CPA grant last week to present our plans
- Last Saturday there was a block party at Angelina Park, Lynne had received notice and had the organizer contact Kathy, which she did. Very nice event hosted by a local church; sadly was sparsely attended. Will be doing another on the 14th of July, 11-1; Maybe Office Reyes and Dan Moran can help flyer the neighborhood
